The vale of Lorton is a series of villages leading from Cockermouth near Keswick and is one of the prettiest areas in the northern lakes. The ancient villages of high and low Lorton near the Whinlatter pass have properties dating back 300 years. There are many excellent walks in the area including Rannerdale knotts, Buttermere, Loweswater and it's nearby waterfall. Whinlatter Forest boasts an excellent cycling track.

The Wheatsheaf Inn at Low Lorton is approximately ten minutes walk and the Kirkstile Inn at Loweswater is approximately ten minutes drive, there is also the Fish Inn at Buttermere Village. Lorton has a village shop also grass and hard-court tennis at the local club. The nearby towns of Cockermouth and Keswick have a full range of facilities including several supermarkets. Sainsbury's and Aldi in Cockermouth, Booths and the Co-op in Keswick, Extensive outdoor clothing shops, Gift shops and Galleries. Both Towns have public Swimming pools also there is a Cinema and a Pencil museum in Keswick and Golf courses at both Keswick and Cockermouth.

Whinlatter Forest Park is approximately three miles away and provides Mountain biking and Orienteering courses also the Forestry enterprise visitor centre a marvelous place to see (Ospreys) in the spring and summer months. There are Five Lakes within Six miles, offering Sailing, Canoeing and Fishing. There is also some excellent Walking and Mountaineering within some of the country's best natural area with beautiful and stunning scenery.
